Labour Market

Gainfully Occupied Population: October 2006

Administrative labour market data indicate that in October 2006, the gainfully occupied population increased by 449 persons while unemployment increased by 50 persons compared to the same month of 2005.

Labour market data for October 2006 provided by the Employment and Training Corporation (ETC) indicate that the labour supply increased by 499 persons over the same month in the preceding year. The gainfully occupied population increased by 449 persons, whereas the registered unemployed increased by 50 persons.

Full-time Employment

A comparison between the data for October 2005 and October 2006 indicates that, among the sectors that accounted for the increase in employment in October 2006, the principal ones were business activities [NACE 74], construction [NACE 45] and manufacture of electronic components [NACE 32]. Sectors registering drops in employment included manufacture of textiles [NACE 17], air transport [NACE 62], public administration [NACE 75].

With specific reference to the private sector, an increase in employment took place in real estate, renting and business activities [NACE 70-74]. This sector includes business and management consultancy, holding companies, advertising, security activities, industrial cleaning and call centres. In addition, growth in employment occurred in community, social and personal services activities [NACE 90-93] and construction [NACE 45].

Part-time Employment

According to administrative sources, total part-time employment rose by 3,041 persons between October 2005 and October 2006, as illustrated in Table 3. This increase included 1,280 persons whose part-time job is their secondary occupation and 1,761 persons whose part-time job is their primary occupation.

Apprentices, trainees and students

In October 2006, the number of apprentices, students and trainees dropped by 21.7 per cent over the same month in the preceeding year as illustrated in Table 1 ■

Methodological Notes

1. In line with international methodology, annual data are being presented as an average for each respective year.
2. The statistics in this release are based on the administrative records of the Employment and Training Corporation (ETC).
3. The data in this release are to be considered as current and therefore subject to revision. Monthly data are revised in T+12.
4. Full / part-time status is defined by what the employer (employer or self-employed) declares in the Engagement Form which is required to be sent to the ETC upon the commencement of employment.

Definitions

Part 1 of the unemployment register: Those registering under Part 1 are either new job seekers who have left school, re-entrants into the labour market, and job losers who have been made redundant by their former employer.

Part 2 of the unemployment register: Those registering under Part 2 are either workers who have been dismissed from work due to disciplinary action, left work out of their own free will, refused work or training opportunities or were struck off the register after an inspection by the Law Enforcement personnel.

Apprentices, trainees and students: Includes apprentices, trainees, Junior College and University students on the summer work-phase, undergraduate trainees, and trainees with fixed contracts.
